

I am shocked and astounded that there is even any consideration being given to the NAB's attempt to suppress satellite radio. I pay for this service and I certainly don't want some special interest group telling me or XM what or not what I can hear. Please, oh please , don't let satellite radio be turned into the political fiasco that has happened to satellite tv. Thank you.